A little indirect, I must admit, with the World Cup of Rugby and even, I would say, more particularly, with the 15th of France.

Is it precisely... I read an article on the fact that the Pompabière had exploded in sale, would it be the director of this company that made the Pompabière?

No, not at all, because the Pompabière is not only for the 15th of France.

No, no, but it seems that Rugby has exploded the sale of Pompabière.

It's going to go with the energy?

The energy? No.

Compared to the balloon?

With the balloon? No.

Does it make something worn by the Rugbymen?

So, it makes something worn by the Rugbymen?

It depends on what you call the Rugbymen.

You're all ready.

The t-shirts that are sold in the shops for the people who like them?

No, I know too.

Come on, let's go.

It's because they all have their ears taken off, so they wear bandos.

Yes.

And it's the bandos of the Rugbymen, not that we catch them by the ears.

I think, Laurent, that it wouldn't be...

I think it's the glasses, the famous glasses of the French Galician, the sweat glasses.

The glasses of the selector, Fabien Galtier.

Good answer!

Bravo!

From Florian Gazan.

Hello, Mr Demetre.

Hello, hello everyone.

You are the director of Opal Demetre.

So, what is Opal Demetre?

Is it an optical store?

Where do you find it first?

No, not at all.

It's a manufacturer of glasses.

Yes.

And in which we have a multitude of collections, collections for children, children's glasses.

And then a whole collection, of course, of sports glasses,

so at the Demetre brand, which includes glasses for all sports, including the bike, the running,
the diving, the swimming,
and the equipment of Vercorrector.

So, the glasses that Fabien Galtier wears, indeed, we rarely see them.

In any case, for someone who is in the civil,
you are right to say they are rather sports glasses,
because they don't move.

We can play rugby, we can play squash,
golf, that's still a little less physical.

Basketball.

Basketball.

And the glasses won't move.

Is that good?

Yes, quite.

In fact, these glasses are, even if they are a little thick, they are very light.

They have parts in anti-rapid rubber,
at the level of milk, at the level of the branches,
the parts that are related to the skin.

And then they are especially almost unbreakable.

I don't like to say the word unbreakable,
everything can be broken,
but they are almost unbreakable.

Fabien Galtier, he was a little nervous to break his glasses without stopping, because he broke about a dozen each year.

And he went to see a long optician who presented several models to him, in the model of our collection,
which is indeed a material that is called the polyamide,
which is very light and unbreakable.

Wait, I'm cutting you because why is he breaking his glasses?

Because he doesn't play Fabien Galtier.

He still plays a little bit with his players.

He plays with touch,

that is to say that in fact, he doesn't play,
but he touches, which is a little similar to,
let's say, playing,

but he also does other sports,
and then there you go.

So he had the habit of breaking his glasses quite regularly.

And since he got it,
does it sell even more, these famous glasses?
I didn't want to hide that yes, indeed it sells more because I think Fabien Galtier is someone who is,
especially at this moment,
who is more than very media,
and who has a good image at all levels,
at the level of the French.
And he gave a look to these glasses there.
There are even articles,
or Parisians,
but there are articles that have nicknamed them
the futuristic glasses or that compared these glasses to big brands glasses because it can actually become a fashion.
And when he came with, in fact, at home,
he asked a little about his entourage,
how it was,
and then his entourage, I told him that,
it gave him even more charisma that he could have.
So he brought them,
and since now, three or four years,
and I think it's luck,
I mean, first of all,
after his palmaris for three years,
I hope it will still bring him luck.
If we ever win the World Cup,
then your glasses,
you're going to sell them everywhere,
through the glasses.
Yes, but at the same time,
we didn't increase the price for that,
we stocked it a little bit
because we imagined that we could sell it in the public.
Do you want to buy these glasses,
you, Mr. Berlian?
I have them, of course.
I'm sure.
Oh yes, really?
Yes.
When do you put them?

[Transcript] Les Grosses Têtes / LE COUP DE FIL DU JOUR - De célèbres lunettes aux Grosses Têtes

When I walk.

Oh yes.

You're not ready to break them?

Yes.

In any case, the Gaeltier family glasses,

it's you,

and I'm going to try to buy them.

I looked at them,

it's a stock rupture.

Oh yes.

Because you tried to look at them to see.

On non-stock, on non-stock.

Ah.

There were a few sites that didn't have,

maybe expected,

they were going to be on rupture,

but no, it's not rupture,

there's no problem.

Well, go quickly,

increase them then.

Yes.

No, we won't hit him either.

Oh, that's good.

It's a saint, man.

Oh, you're a good guy,

you two.

Who wants to go far,

gear up,

it's up to you.

It's up to you.

It's up to you to say it.

Yes.

Listen, thank you in any case,

you were very kind to answer our questions.

No, but thank you and good evening from the show.

Well, above all, good match for tonight.

We'll be back.

You're welcome.
