

[Transcript] True Sunlight / NEW Trailer: True Sunlight, Exposing Crime & Corruption

Thank you for listening to the Murdoch Murders podcast, the show that started it all.

93 episodes will take you on a journey of twists and turns, ups and downs, tears and belly laughs. We continue this mission with our newest evolution, True Sunlight.

Luna Shark's True Sunlight podcast is the antithesis of true crime.

True sunlight values accuracy over access journalism.

True sunlight is shed with empathy, not exploitation.

True sunlight is the intersection of journalism, true crime, and systemic corruption.

We continue to shed light on Steven Smith's case and Alex Murdoch's co-conspirators.

But also, we like to take deep dives into other cases around the country.

True sunlight empowers listeners to understand their legal and judicial systems with our unique brand of pesky journalism.
