

[Transcript] The News Agents / This week on The News Agents: USA - Has the Republican party become 'a cult'?

This is a Global Player Original Podcast.

Coming up on Newsagents USA, we have a hum digger of a debate between two former Republican congressmen who are tearing strips out of each other about Donald Trump.

Emily, you know what's fun? Ask Bob if Donald Trump has done anything wrong. It's always fun to ask them.

You ask him.

Hey Bob, has Donald Trump done anything wrong? Has he brought any of this on himself?

And the purpose of this question is what?

I'd like an answer. Has Donald Trump done anything wrong? Has he brought anything on himself?

Is there anything that he could do that would not cause you to support the Biden globalist agenda?

Oh, we had globalists.

That is weakened America across the globe, financially, economically, and militarily.

That's your target.

And yet they are laughing through the whole thing. Join us for that.

And we discuss DeSantis, Ron DeSantis, the man who wants to be the Trump candidate, and can't quite get there. Why not? And why has he been beaten at his own game?

And we hear from Olivier Knox, national political correspondent for the Washington Post, who has followed the Hunter Biden scandal, or question, from the very beginning.

And he talks us through what is fact and what is hyperbole.
